Incumbent Worker Training Funding Review Committee Member
Conflict of Interest Statement

A conflict of interest exists (real or perceived), if the reviewer's place of employment or company in which the reviewer has a financial interest, applies for and is considered during the review process for funding.

Should a conflict of interest exist, the IWT Ad Hoc Committee member will refrain from participating in the entire review process as outlined in the IWT Policy/Procedures, including final board or Executive Committee approval of the recommendations.

Having been provided with a list of companies which have submitted applications for Incumbent Worker Training Funding, I certify that no conflict, real or perceived, exists between any company applying for funding and me.
